Policy number	NNN/EPV/0520	Version	May 2020
Drafted by	Network Principal	Approved by	Network Principal
Responsible person	Network Principal	Scheduled review date	December 2021

Introduction

EREA Nano Nagle Network (hereon in referred to as 'NNN') Flexible Learning Centre's offer an inclusive specialist secondary school setting for young people who are disengaged or are at imminent risk of disengaging from mainstream education. Where a young person has been identified as being particularly vulnerable, extra measures will be taken as required in order to support their positive engagement in the school community.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to describe the parameters in which young people may enrol at NNN Flexible Learning Centre's. This policy complies with all applicable State and Commonwealth laws.

Policy

NNN Flexible Learning Centre's accept enrolments from young people of all genders, language, cultural, ethnic and religious backgrounds, with particular sensitivity to Aboriginal culture and young people from backgrounds of socio-economic disadvantage.

The young people who enrol at NNN Flexible Learning Centre's have typically experienced one or more significant and complex educational, social, developmental, psychological, health, legal or familial situations that necessitate numerous educational adjustments to enable meaningful learning to occur. Often, these young people are residing in out of home care, are involved with youth justice, are young parents, experience significant physical or mental health concerns or illicit substance dependence, or may be adversely affected by homelessness, poverty, or refugee experiences. NNN Flexible Learning Centre's are able to enrol and support young people between the ages of 12 and 25.

Procedures for Flexible Learning Centre's

Definitions

Mature Minor: A young person with sufficient maturity and intelligence to understand the nature and effect of a decision and has the capacity to make the decision on their own behalf.

In order to enrol at NNN Flexible Learning Centre's, a young person and their legal guardian will both demonstrate an understanding of the specialist nature of the school and provide consent to the enrolment. The young person must also be deemed to be disengaged or at risk of disengaging from other secondary education settings, as indicated by factors such as:

- prolonged non-attendance or very low attendance;
- expulsion or repeated suspensions;
- recent incarceration;
- failure to transition from primary to secondary school.

Enrolment meetings are held in order to assess a young person's needs and educational aspirations in the light of the above criteria, and to assess the Flexible Learning Centre's current capacity to meet those needs. The young person's right to study will be confirmed at the point of enrolment.

Consent and decision-making responsibilities to enrol a young person

In determining who is responsible for making specific decisions relating to enrolment for a young person, the Principal or relevant staff member should consider the following;

- Whether the young person is an 'adult' (18 years or older) or a 'mature minor', meaning the young person can make their own decisions in all areas of their schooling, including consent to enrol.
- If the young person is not an adult or a mature minor, the following people are responsible to consent for the young person to enrol.
 - Persons with parental responsibility for a 'major long-term issue'
 - Persons with guardianship
 - Persons allocated this responsibility pursuant to a Court Order or Parenting Plan.

Year Levels

As many of the young people who enrol have gaps in their education, our classes are based on ability, and not age. During the enrolment and induction process, previous school records and initial testing (such as Progress Achieve Test (PAT) - Reading) is used to make a determination regarding the approximate year level of each young person.

Review

This policy will be reviewed and updated on an annual basis, or as major changes arise.
