Background

The Eastern Flexible Schools Network is an initiative of Edmund Rice Education Australia. Flexible Learning Centres (FLCs) offer a full-time and multiyear secondary education and social inclusion program for young people who are disenfranchised and disengaged from mainstream education. Young people enrolled in a Flexible Learning Centre may present with a broad range of complex educational and social needs that FLCs respond to through a variety of flexible and innovative social inclusion and learning experiences.

Flexible Learning Centres are registered schools which provide young people with a varied and holistic set of learning experiences that support them in identifying and pursuing an individual transition to adulthood, employment, further education and training, and social connectedness.

Students who attend include indigenous and non-indigenous young people that are disengaged from mainstream education for a variety of reasons including:

- Those who have had contact with the juvenile justice system;
- Those who reside in Out of Home Care (OoHC);
- Those with a history of trauma;
- Those with a history of extended periods of unexplained absences;
- Those who are highly mobile;
- Those with mental illness or at risk of engaging in self-harming behaviours or substance abuse;
- Those who have been excluded or repeatedly suspended from school;
- Those who are homeless;
- Those who are young parents;

- Those with a generational history of early school leaving; and,
- Those with a generational history of unemployment.

Foundation Statement

EREA FLCs seeks to respond to the needs of young people disenfranchised and disengaged from education. We provide a place and an opportunity for young people to re-engage in a suitable, flexible learning environment.

Flexible Learning Centres seek to build honest and authentic relationships with young people, their families and communities and support and celebrate the uniqueness and dignity of each person.

Flexible Learning Centres are guided by the vision of Edmund Rice about the empowering service of education to achieve personal and community liberation through educational experiences that enable transformation.

Strategic Values

Within our radical, social, and ecological justice framework, Flexible Learning Centres are intentional learning communities that articulate the following core values with authenticity and integrity and are expressed through the life journey of its members.

SAFETY

Safety within our environment is liberating, holistic and implicit in all aspects of community life. This includes non-violence, peaceful resolution of conflict, celebration of diversity, freedom from judgement, and the security to take emotional and intellectual risks.

RELATIONSHIP

Relationships are formed on shared common ground with compassion and love, respecting and celebrating the individual. We embrace the connectedness of complex and authentic relationships within diverse communities.

COMMUNITY

Our dynamic communities seek to be life giving environments where the dignity of all is honoured. Our communities are multi-dimensional spaces for the liberating power of learning and engaging together.

TRANSFORMATION

We walk together on journeys of individual and community transformation. We are sustained by and celebrate our commitment to hope, optimism and a belief in the possible.

ECO-JUSTICE

Eco-justice calls us to enact our responsibility to the interconnectedness, sacredness and dignity of all creation.
