Educational Psychologist

Nano Nagle Network, St Joseph's and St Francis Flexible Learning Schools, work with young people who are disengaged from mainstream education with the aim of re-engaging them in creative, meaningful and intentional learning. Our schools work with young people through a trauma informed approach respectful to the educational needs of each learner.

The Role:

- We are looking for a Educational Psychologist, based at our newly renovated Carlton office.
- You will be employed on an ongoing 0.8 FTE contract, working four days per week.
- You will be employed under the Catholic Education Multi-Enterprise Agreement 2018.

Key Duties

- Conduct psychological and educational assessments for designated young people and advise school staff or relevant teaching and/or wellbeing strategies based on these assessments
- Provide expert advice to school staff on behaviour management plans for selected young people
- Support in the creation of Education Needs Analysis for identified students.
- Provide debriefing for staff following critical incidents
- Conduct any psychological assessments required to support NCCD funding
- Provide expert advice about collecting psychological data required by NCCD funding

About You:

- Able to commit to and work within our Operating Principles; Respect, Participation, Safe and Legal and Honesty.
- Come complete with three years full time experience as a fully registered psychologist
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People are encouraged to apply, we are an Equal Opportunity Employer and value diversity.

To Apply:

Please visit our website, learn about our work, and review the position information in Employment Opportunities at www.ereafsn.edu.au. Forward your application to nanonaglerecruitment@ereafsn.edu.au and include:

- A letter of introduction and a response to the selection criteria;
- A current curriculum vitae outlining previous experience and skills;
- Two referees (including contact details). Please include a referee from current or most recent place of employment.

Applications Close: 5 pm Tuesday 31 May 2022
